2. [] BRIEFING Sat in on a briefing of Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.) on the subject of the Agency's activities in collecting intelligence on international illegal narcotics trafficking given by Mr. Ted Shackley, ADDO, and [] Also in attendance were Mr. Owen Malone, Chief Counsel, Senate Governmental Affairs Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, and Mr. Keith Adkinson, of the Subcommittee staff. Mr. Shackley explained the Agency's role and responsibilities and its coordination with DEA. (See Memorandum for the Record prepared by [] I gave to Adkinson a copy of the DDI's study on the narcotics situation in several countries. He also asked if we could provide the Subcommittee any comprehensive reports on international terrorism and a clear case of international terrorism linked to groups in the United States which the Subcommittee could use to illustrate the threat. Mr. Shackley said he would check to see if such a case could be provided. I will follow up on providing reports on terrorism.

3. [] BRIEFING Delivered to the Senate Armed Services Committee the corrected transcript of the Agency's briefing on the Soviet navy on 11 March together with responses for the record to a number of questions that were raised during the briefing.

4. [] PLC) LIAISON Received a call from Rick Grawey, House Government Operations Subcommittee on Manpower and Housing staff, advising that Mr. Tom Tinsley, Civil Service Commission, had informed him that he will be reversing the Commission's policy not to grant reemployed CIARDS annuitants further retirement benefits. Grawey inquired as to whether the Agency will be granting annuitants a waiver of further benefits under the CIA Retirement Act to allow the Commission to make a full recomputation. I told him our General Counsel will make this decision as soon as the Civil Service Commission formally advises the Agency of its reversal. I further explained that the Commission will make its decision as soon as the Agency provides the total number of reemployed CIARDS annuitants. Grawey asked that I let him know when this information is given to the Commission, and he will call Mr. Tinsley to press for quick action.
